OVERVIEW:

This session will cover the rules regarding open and closed meetings for hospital governing boards, including agendas, advance notice, confidentiality, electronic meetings, recordings, and public records. This presentation will compare the rules for nonprofit hospitals and government-owned hospitals and will cover situations in which these distinct types of entities are subject to different rules. In addition, this presentation will cover advisory bodies and committees, and explain rules affecting these groups. To provide context, the presenters will analyze legal decisions involving open meetings laws and discuss the legal implications of violations.

OBJECTIVES:

- Analyze legal decisions involving open meetings law;
- Compare rules for nonprofit hospitals and government-owned hospitals;
- Describe the rules for open and closed meetings for hospital governing boards; and
- Provide an update about attorney general enforcement in this area.
